
Optical polarisation rotator (Red 638 nm)

Optical parts and Scanner sets

The optical polarisation rotator is used to rotate the linear polarisation of light by 90 degree. In contrast to a wave plate the rotator is not sensitive to its angular position what makes its usage easier. Its diameter is 10 mm, the thickness depends on the wavelength. Both surfaces are anti-reflection coated.