
Anamorphic prism pair (Blue)

Optical parts and Scanner sets

Anamorphic prism pair is used to expand or reduce the beam size in one direction only. This pair is optimized for 450 nm. The magnification can be well tuned continuously by rotating the prisms, although the coating is optimised for magification 1:2. The prism height is 16 mm, width 12 mm and thickness near 8 mm.